Agenda item 5 (a)
Demographic and social statistics: population and housing censuses

Australia,* China, Denmark, Ghana, Japan, Mexico, South Africa and United States of America: draft resolution

2010 World Population and Census Programme

The Statistical Commission recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

"2010 World Population and Housing Census Programme

"The Economic and Social Council,

"Recalling its resolution 1995/7 of 19 July 1995, in which it requested the Secretary-General to proceed with the development of the 2000 World Population and Housing Census Programme and urged States Members of the United Nations to carry out population and housing censuses during the period 1995-2004, as well as its earlier resolutions endorsing previous decennial programmes,

"Having reviewed the efforts made by Member States to carry out population and housing censuses as part of the 2000 World Population and Housing Census Programme and also the activities of the United Nations and funding agencies in support of national efforts in that regard,

"Recognizing the increasing importance of the 2010 round of population and housing censuses for meeting data needs for the follow-up activities to the Millennium Summit, held in New York from 6 to 8 September 2000, the International Conference on Population and Development, held in Cairo from 5 to 13 September 1994, the World Summit for Social Development, held in Copenhagen from 6 to 12 March 1995, the Fourth World Conference on

* In accordance with rule 69 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council.

Women, held in Beijing from 4 to 15 September 1995, and the United Nations Conference on Human Settlements (Habitat II), held in Istanbul from 3 to 14 June 1996, and to other regional and national meetings,

"Considering the importance of the population and housing census to the preparation of a meaningful core set of national data and information necessary for socio-economic planning and governance,

"Stressing that for a country as a whole and for each administrative area therein periodic population and housing censuses are one of the primary sources of data needed for effective development planning and for the monitoring of population issues and socio-economic and environmental trends, policies and programmes,

"1. Supports the 2010 World Population and Housing Census Programme, consisting of a number of activities aimed at ensuring that Member States conduct a population and housing census at least once during the period 2005-2014;

"2. Urges Member States to carry out a population and housing census and to disseminate census results as an essential source of information for small-area, national, regional and international planning and development and to provide census results to national stakeholders as well as the United Nations and other appropriate intergovernmental organizations to assist in studies on population, environment and socio-economic development issues and programmes;

"3. Emphasizes the importance of the 2010 World Population and Housing Census Programme for socio-economic planning, and requests increased support for this Programme;

"4. Requests the Secretary-General to implement the 2010 World Population and Housing Census Programme."
